ORDER:

Whereas Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, Joint Registrar of Cooperative Societies in Head Office had expired on 18-3-2003 and his son Sri M.Prasanna Kumar applied for appointment on compassionate grounds within a period of one year from date of demise of his father. Government in the reference 2nd read above did not consider the proposal for giving compassionate appointment to said Sri M.Prasanna Kumar, S/o Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, Joint Registrar, as the scheme of compassionate appointment does not apply to the children of 2nd wife and also keeping in view of the orders of Hon'ble High Court dated.10-6-2003 in W.P.Nos.6542/2003, 6663/2003, 6943/2003 and 8152/2003.

2. Whereas in the reference 3rd read above, the Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, based on the representation of Smt. M. Krishnaveni, daughter of first wife of Late Sri M. Radhakrishnaiah, Joint Registrar, dt. 13-12-2006, has submitted proposals for compassionate appointment to Smt. M. Krishnaveni. Whereas in the reference 4th read above, Government rejected the proposal for providing compassionate appointment to Smt M.Krishnaveni, as she has applied for compassionate appointment after a lapse of 3 years 6 months and 25 days from the date of demise of her father i.e, not within the stipulated period of one year, as per the scheme of compassionate appointments.

3. Whereas Smt. M.Krishnaveni, D/o first wife of Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaian, Joint Registrar in her representations 6th read above, have submitted that she is the only daughter and already married by the time her father died and further stated that her husband and she both are unemployed and she is not in a position to survive with her old mother and two children since there is no earning member in her entire family. She has further submitted that the delay in submission of application is due to rejection of application of her brother for compassionate appointment by Govt., which was applied in time. She has therefore requested to consider her application for compassionate appointment with effect from the date of her brother's application who had applied within the stipulated period of one year.

4. Government have further examined the matter and observed that the application from Sri M.Prasanna Kumar, S/o Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, was received on 7-5-2003 i.e., within the period of one year from the date of demise of his father. But his request was rejected on 1-7-2005 on technical grounds that the scheme of compassionate appointment does not apply to the children of second wife. Later, Smt. M. Krishnaveni, married daughter of first wife of Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, has applied for compassionate appointment on 13-12-2006 i.e., after rejection of appointment to her brother. Since the application from the family members of Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, Joint Registrar, is within the stipulated period of one year, Government after careful examination have decided to consider the case of Smt M.Krishna Veni, married daughter of first wife of Late Sri M.Radhakrishnaiah, for compassionate appointment.

5. Accordingly, Government hereby consider the request of Smt M. Krishnaveni, married daughter of first wife of Late Sri M. Radha Krishnaiah, Joint Registrar of Cooperative Societies for appointment on compassionate grounds, and hereby direct the District Collector, Ranga Reddy to provide employment to said individual on compassionate grounds to a post suitable as per her educational qualifications, provided she is the dependent on the deceased Government employee and if the spouse of the applicant is not an earning member, and subject to satisfying the other conditions and instructions issued by Government on the scheme of compassionate appointment from time to time.

6. The appointing authority before providing employment to the individual shall ensure that she is the dependent of the deceased Government employee and her spouse is not an earning member.

7. The District Collector, Ranga Reddy and Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, AP, Hyderabad shall take necessary action accordingly.
